- This is the story of two stars. As the sun went down, the stars came up.
- One day, one of the stars started to dance. Then the other one started to dance, too!
- One star said, “Follow me!” and then the other said, “Follow me!”
- One day, they decided to dance through space.
- Sometimes they saw other stars and they made arches together.
- Other stars saw the arches and flew under them!
- Sometimes, whole groups of stars danced together.
- Finally, the stars danced their way back home.
- As the sun came up, the stars slowly went back down.

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

Today was a day I did everything right,
Though my brother annoyed me, I still didn't fight.

I played nicely all day, didn't argue or scream.
Now my mom says we'll go for a dish of ice cream.

Mmmm!

I ate all of my breakfast and all of my lunch.

I picked up my toys (and I have a bunch),
And since I've been helpful, like part of a team,
I think I might ask for two scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

Two scoops! What a treat! But I think you'll agree,
It would be hard to imagine one better than me.
I've done everything right, or so it would seem,
Maybe Mom will allow me three scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

Yes! Today has been special. It's not every day,
I do everything right, in such a nice way.
So why not, of course, since I'm building up steam,
Have some syrup on top of four scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

“You’ve been perfect, my dear!” That’s what mom said today.

So I know she won’t mind if I have it my way.

To the syrup, add nuts and also whipped cream,
And a cherry on top of five scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

And yet, when I think about wanting more,
Though it sounds awfully good, I know what’s in store.

I’ll eat, and I’ll eat, and I’ll run out of steam,
And I won’t feel so good after all that ice cream.

Mmmm...

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

Since today was a day I did everything right,

I will not spoil my record by making a sight.

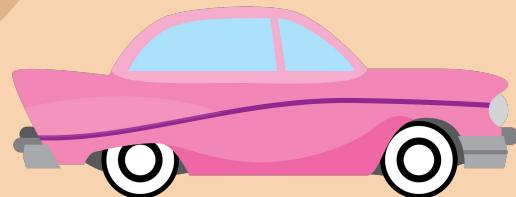

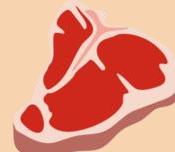

I'll ask most politely, though it was fun to dream,
“May I please have one scoop of vanilla ice cream?”

Mmmm!

Mmmm!

Yes! Today has been special. It's not every day,
I do everything right, in such a nice way.
So why not, of course, since I'm building up steam,
Have some syrup on top of four scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

“You’ve been perfect, my dear!” That’s what mom said today.

So I know she won’t mind if I have it my way.

To the syrup, add nuts and also whipped cream,
And a cherry on top of five scoops of ice cream.

Mmmm!

And yet, when I think about wanting more,
Though it sounds awfully good, I know what’s in store.

I’ll eat, and I’ll eat, and I’ll run out of steam,
And I won’t feel so good after all that ice cream.

Mmmm...

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

Since today was a day I did everything right,

I will not spoil my record by making a sight.

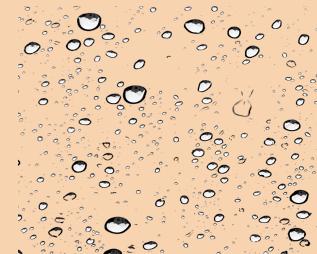

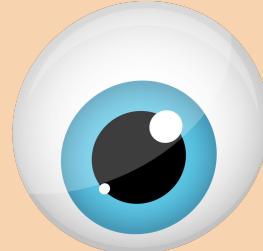

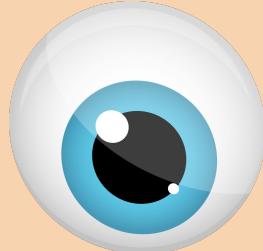

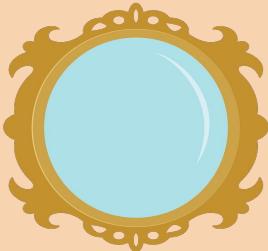

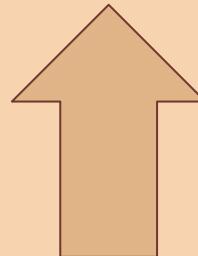

I'll ask most politely, though it was fun to dream,
“May I please have one scoop of vanilla ice cream?”

Mmmm!

Pitch Exploration

I can sing high and low.

Can you sing, “Mmmm!” as a solo?

Song Fragments

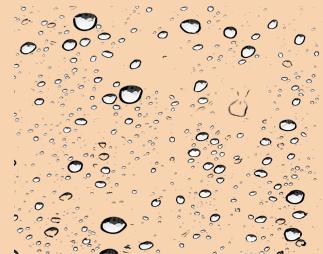

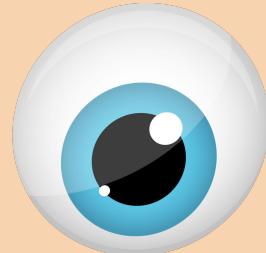

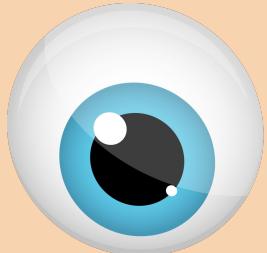

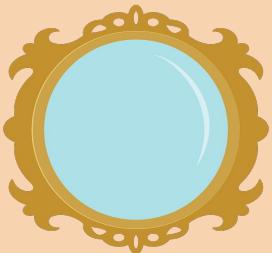

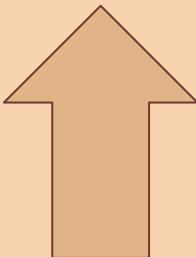

I can echo the leader.

Musical Conversations

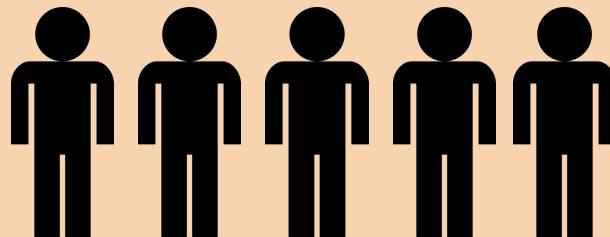

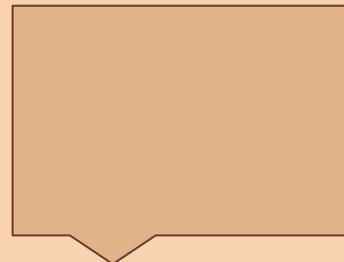

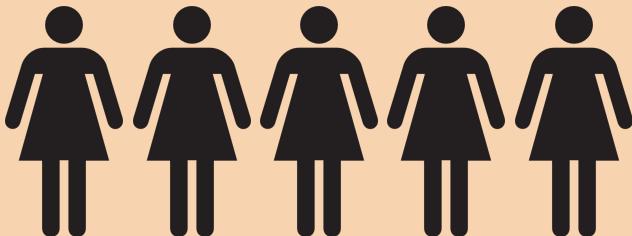

Movement Exploration

I can move with awareness of my body.

- Everyone stands on one side of the room
- Last night, when no one was looking, someone filled the room with jello!
- Push one body part through the jello, and pull the rest through
 - Head, hand, foot, elbow, back, etc.
- Try to make it all the way to the other side of the room!

There was a man lived in the moon,
Lived in the moon, lived in the moon.
There was a man lived in the moon,
And his name was Aiken Drum.

His head was made of an apple...
His body was made of a pickle...
His legs were made of celery...
His arms were made of bananas...
His eyes were made of cherries...
His nose was made of a carrot...
His mouth was made of a rainbow...
His hair was made of spaghetti...

- This is the story of two stars. As the sun went down, the stars came up.
- One day, one of the stars started to dance. Then the other one started to dance, too!
- One star said, “Follow me!” and then the other said, “Follow me!”
- One day, they decided to dance through space.
- Sometimes they saw other stars and they made arches together.
- Other stars saw the arches and flew under them!
- Sometimes, whole groups of stars danced together.
- Finally, the stars danced their way back home.
- As the sun came up, the stars slowly went back down.
